

Asylum Aid provides expert legal help to some of the most vulnerable asylum seekers in the UK, and campaigns for a fairer and more efficient asylum system.

We can conduct this work thanks to the support and generosity of our many members, partners and funders. The Trustees and staff of Asylum Aid wish to thank all those who supported the charity with grants and donations in 2010.

Trusts, Foundations and Statutory bodies

Access 4

BBC Children in Need

City Parochial Foundation

Comic Relief

Diana, Princess of Wales Memorial Fund

Eleanore Rathbone Charitable Trust

G M Morrison Charitable Trust

Harford Charitable Trust

Helen Tetlow Memorial Fund

Joseph Rowntree Charitable Trust

Kessler Foundation and the Jewish Chronicle

Lankelly Chase Foundation

Legal Services Commission

London Councils

Marsh Christian Trust

New Philanthropy Capital

Peter Stebbings Memorial Charity

Rayden Charitable Trust

The Baring Foundation

The Brillig Charitable Trust

The Edwin Fox Foundation

The Evan Cornish Foundation

The Freemasons' Grand Charity

The Joan Strutt Charitable Trust

The Leigh Trust

The Norda Trust

The Odin Charitable Trust

The Sigrid Rausing Trust

The Roger Brooke Charitable Trust

The Walter Guinness Charitable Trust

Unbound Philanthropy

Thank you also to:

UNHCR

Matrix Chambers

F H Trent

John Abbey

Penny Cole

Dean and Chapter of Westminster Abbey

Older Feminists Network

Mission Fish

SC and ME Morland's Charitable Trust

London Legal Support Trust

In addition, Asylum Aid would like to thank

The whole team who took part in the sponsored walk in May 2010, and everyone who donated

All our supporters and members

Everyone who responded to our fundraising inserts and advert in: The Amnesty Magazine, the Guardian Weekend, New Internationalist and the New Statesman